

JUVENILE OFFENDER RESOURCES DIRECTORY:

1. Canyon State Academy: vocational training, academic program, and behavioral health treatment. Residential facility for boys ages 8 – 18.
602/538-8489 Rush Shamblin, Admission Coordinator
www.canyonstateacademy.org
2. Chicanos Por La Causa: provides educational and vocational training, substance abuse counseling, classes of parenting issues, and referrals to mental, physical, and dental health providers.
602/269-6485 Ruben Miranda or Yvonne Pena, Administrators
3. Chrysalis Shelter, Inc.: provides shelter for battered women and children. Offers outpatient counseling to victims, abusers, and children/adolescents which include therapeutic intervention on anger management issues
602/955-9059
For Shelter: (PHX) 602/944-4999
(Scottsdale) 480/481-0402
www.chrysalis-shelter.org
4. Florence Crittenton Services of Arizona: provides independent living skills training, teen parenting program, youth academy, mentoring programs, and a residential group home for girls. Referrals generally come from agencies, but girls can walk in from off the street.
602/274-7318
www.flocrit.org
5. Life Skills Center: educational assistance for children 16-21 who have problems socially and/or academically in a regular classroom setting. Self-referrals and agency referrals.
602/242-6400
www.lifekillscenters.com
6. Native American Connections Inc.: provides behavioral health services, housing resources, case management, and life skills development. Self-referrals.
602/254-3247

7. Prehab of Arizona: provides diverse residential programs available to youth who have suffered physical, sexual, emotional, and/or drug abuse problems. Also offers community-based center for outpatient counseling and educational classes. Referrals are generally made through juvenile court, juvenile probation, DES, and Value Options.
602/969-4024
www.prehab.org
8. Youth Development Institute: secure residential treatment facility that provides developmental and educational opportunities for troubled youth. Offers transitional living program and outpatient services. Funding, and referrals, can be made through Courts, Value Options, DES/CPS, and school districts.
602/254-0884